WOTW 1: monologue/soliloquy (n.) - an extended speech spoken by one speaker, either to others or as if alone. - dramatic speech, revealing inner thoughts and feelings, spoken aloud by one character while alone on the stage.

WOTW 2: dialogue (n.) - conversation between characters or speakers in a literary work; in its most restricted sense, it refers specifically to the speech of characters in a drama.

DAILY WORDS OF WISDOM: "It is the mark of an educated man to be able to entertain a thought without accepting it."

Period 2, 4, 5, 7:

1. Be sure you have listened to your own.
2. Listen to the audio recordings in small groups. Check for all of the qualities that would make it a well done reading:
 - o Volume is loud enough
 - o Enunciation is adequate
 - o It's read at a nice pace (not too fast)
 - o Background noise is non-existent or minimal
3. Add QR Code extension to your browser. And make your code. Save it in your Drive folder (to print later).

Period 6:

1. Continue writing your This I Believe.
2. Complete a rhetorical analysis in Google Drive on a poem (with accompanying handout for method).
